

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
CIVIL AIR PATROL
UNITED STATES AIR FORCE AUXILIARY
MAXWELL AIR FORCE BASE, ALABAMA 36112-6332

LIEUTENANT COLONEL JOHN W. DESMARAIS, SR., CAP
DEPUTY DIRECTOR, OPS SUPPORT & HOMELAND SECURITY
105 South Hansell Street, Bldg 714
Maxwell AFB, AL 36112-6332
Voice: (334) 953-4228 DSN: 493
Fax: (800) 555-7902
jdesmarais@cap.gov

1 April 2005

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL CAP UNITS

FROM: HQ CAP/DOS

SUBJECT: 2005 National Emergency Services Academy (NESA) Openings

1. The following NESA courses have limited slots available that must be filled by the end of April:

- a. National Ground Search And Rescue School (NGSAR)
 - 1) Both NGSAR Basic Courses: 25 June – 2 July and 2 – 9 July
 - 2) Both NGSAR Advanced Courses: 25 June – 2 July and 2 – 9 July
 - 3) NGSAR Team Leader Course: 2 - 9 July
- b. Incident Command System School (ICSS)
 - 1) ICSS Basic Course: 25 June – 2 July
 - 2) ICSS Advanced Course: 2 – 9 July

Note: There are no slots available in the 2005 Mission Aircrew School.

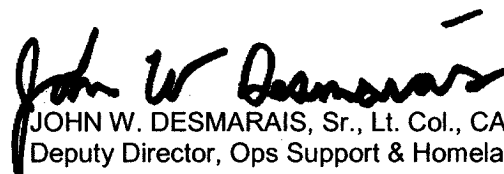

2. All courses will be conducted at Camp Atterbury in Edinburgh, Indiana, and each course costs $155 to attend. Personnel can attend courses in back to back sessions, but cannot take two courses in the same week. Fees are due when you apply online (see below).

3. Students are expected to provide their own transportation to NESA, though we will assist with pickups from the Indianapolis International Airport (IND). Applicants should not make firm travel arrangements until they have been formally accepted to the course.

4. Applications for cadets and seniors are being accepted on a first come first served basis at:
<https://www.peopleware.net/secure/index.cfm?siteCode=1044&&CFID=2989169&CFTOKEN=55880161&siteID=105>

5. Personnel applying must have their wing's permission to attend. We recommend that applicants contact their chain of command immediately so that we can confirm eligibility quickly.

6. If personnel have any additional questions about NESA, please feel free contact me or the activity director, Major Gary Brockman, at (317) 897-4598 or pathfinder@tcon.net. More information about any NESA course is available online at: <http://www.homestead.com/ngsar/home.html>.

JOHN W. DESMARAIS, Sr., Lt. Col., CAP
Deputy Director, Ops Support & Homeland Security